The return of Rev. F. H. Cumming to this charge for another year is truly a blessing upon this people. We should be grateful to Brother Cumming for his care of us and to Him above Whose will we believe it was that he be with us another season at least. We can do much to make Brother Cumming's labors among us more pleasant and spiritually profitable, and he will value so much, a helping hand. We must aid him in brightening the way that leads home.

If we will but read the accounts of the suffering and forbearance of Christians in the long ago, we will the better realize how little we sacrifice and do for a Savior who did so much for us. In a time of need beyond human power, what will you do, who will come to our aid if we now neglect to prepare the way?

The Methodists are using the Dr. Steverston store until the completion of their house of worship which will likely be sometime in the spring. This courtesy of Mayor Steverston is to be appreciated and we believe, is. It is a nice, clean, comfortable place in which to hold service.

If some of the junk dealers in Memphis were to visit parts of our town and the rubbish lying around, they would be well paid for their trip. It continues to be a wonder why we do not cooperate for a cleaner and a better Moscow. We have a few citizens who delight in keeping their premises and surroundings in a neat condition.

Interesting services conducted by the pastor, Rev. Cumming, will be held Sunday in the Steverston store. It will pay this people to turn out in force and assist to welcome this beloved man's return to this circuit. An effort will be made to make the services on that day of special interest to those who are careless about church going and attention to their spiritual welfare. Make glad the heart of the pastor by a large attendance.

Circuit Court.

The last week's proceedings in the circuit court were of the most routine and uninteresting kind that are had in that court. There was a docket of about the average length, but composed of cases mostly of minor importance and they were despatched rapidly by the court, so that at the time of adjournment Saturday at noon the docket had been almost cleaned up, very few continuances being left for the next term. The following convictions in criminal cases are found from the docket in the office of Clerk M. R. Henley:

Elmore Hester, larceny, $50 and 60 days in the county workhouse.

Sam Murphy, carrying pistol, $50 fine and 11 months and 29 days in the workhouse.

Andrew Austin, violating four-mile law, $50 fine 4 months in the workhouse.

Neely Johnson, involuntary manslaughter, six months in work house.

Alec Whitmore, larceny, 60 days in work house.

Alec Hardy, larceny, 60 days in work house.

Bob Davis, larceny, 30 days in work house.

Jack Finnie, carrying knucks $50 fine.

Jack Finnie, carrying pistol, $50 fine and 4 months in work house.

Jim Burns, disturbing public worship $40 fine.

Jim Cooper, larceny, 60 days in the work house.

Andrew Cox, carrying pistol, $50 fine.

Ed Talley, violating four-mile law, $50 fine and 6 months in work house.

Reuben Jenkins, assault, $10 fine.

A. H. Cobb, soliciting liquor orders, $50 fine.

Andy Malone, carrying pistol, $50 fine and 30 days in the work house.

A number of other cases were compromised on the payment of costs.

The total fines assessed during the term were nearly $380 and fourteen workhouse sentences were imposed, besides there will be a number of the fines that will have to be worked out in the workhouse gang. Particular mention is made of the heaviest fine in the above list, $100, for a violation of the four-mile law.

Mrs. Fannie Crawford.

At Williston on Sunday morning, December 3, 1916, Mrs. Fannie Crawford fell asleep. She was born on July 10, 1851. At the age of 20 she was happily married to J. K. Crawford who preceded her to the better life a little less than three years ago. From early childhood her life was one of consecration. With her temporal matters were secondary, and the service of the Master was paramount to all else. In the absence of her husband she ministered at the family altar; and by her life, instead of pointing to a better world, she led the way. Many are they of younger years who have lived about Williston who can and will say that a knowledge of her noble character has influenced them to a better life. She was born near Asbury church, and at Asbury church Monday afternoon we laid her to rest. So, hardly a few minutes walk separates her cradle and her grave. And yet her sphere of influence was large, for her refinement and intellectual endowments, consecrated as they were, were of that splendid type that tell.

She leaves six sons, Andrew, Dr. John, Jene, Charlie, Mahon and Hugh, and two daughters, May and Ruth Crawford, surviving her. Another son, Robt. S. Crawford and a daughter, Mrs. Colebank, just recently preceded their mother to rest. At the burial the six sons above named acted as pall bearers, and tenderly bore their mothers remains to their final resting place, where friends and relatives gathered in reverence and respect to review her beautiful and devoted life, and to think of things that were and are to be.

Perfect Confidence.

Somerville people have good reasons for complete reliance.

Do you know how—
To find relief from backache;
To correct distressing urinary ills;
To assist weak kidneys?
Your neighbors know the way—
Have used Doan's Kidney Pills;
Have proved their worth in many tests.

Here's Someville testimony.
Mrs. G. W. Bobbitt, College St, Somerville, says: "About four years ago I was in bad shape with disordered kidneys. I was hardly able to get around and the pain across the small of my back kept me from bending and doing my housework. The kidney secretions were unnatural and gave me great annoyance. Doan's Kidney Pills brought me quick relief and after I had finished the second box, the ailments left me. I have been free from kidney complaint ever since."
